SCHOOL SUPPORT STAFF SURVEY

Dear GMB Member,

Have you got a few minutes to complete a survey about your work in schools?

Fighting for our members

GMB believes school support staff are forced to bear the brunt of huge cuts to the education budget imposed by this Government. We think this is utterly wrong and continue to fight for our members' jobs and working conditions – not to mention our children's education.

Part of this fight is exposing the increasingly challenging conditions many school staff are forced to work under – which is the purpose of this questionnaire.

How are you doing?

We appreciate some of the questions in the survey below relate to difficult and stressful situations, and we don't ask them lightly. We want to build up a picture of how tough things are getting in our schools and would like to share your responses, anonymously, with supportive journalists ahead of our congress in June.

We promise nothing will ever be published that could identify you, or your school.

This information will provide an update to the major GMB survey of 2015/16, regarding violence in schools, and will enable us to see how changes, including the cuts in budgets and reduction in staff numbers have affected members' experiences.

We would appreciate it very much if you could complete the survey by going to the link below:

Thanks for your help.
