

Dear Colleague,

According to our records, you have left British Gas on the back of their despicable Fire & Rehire tactics. GMB applauds every single one of you for your resolve in standing up to their bully boy tactics. Come rain or shine (or even snow), you were there on your picket line, and we were truly inspired by you and your efforts.

However, since you used to pay your subscriptions through your wages, this means that you will no longer be making payments to GMB. In order to remain part of the union and continue to receive our membership benefits, including access to our legal team, UnionLine, along with many other services, we politely ask you to provide us with your bank details in order that we can set up a direct debit.

There are many benefits that require a certain length of service, so it is vital that you continue paying your subscriptions so that you don't miss out in future. There are two ways of doing so:

1. Visit <https://www.gmb.org.uk/direct-debit> and provide your details there.
2. Send an email to membership.so@gmb.org.uk with your phone number, and a member of our team will give you a call to sort it over the phone.

If you have any questions relating to this process, do get in touch. We look forward to hearing from you and to continuing to work with you as part of the GMB family.

Best wishes,
