We, the undersigned, support the GMB members in dispute with their employer, the Royal Pavilion and Museums Trust. These buildings are the symbol of Brighton and their collections, along with the passionate and knowledgeable staff who work their make it the number one tourist attraction in the city.

Taking strike action is a last resort and a cry for help.

We sign this petition to urge Trust management, Trustees, the local council and other politicians to do what they can to ensure this Brighton landmark and its collections are protected properly by these hard-working residents of Brighton, who need to remain properly remunerated and taken care of. This is our landmark, but these are their livelihoods.
